

Outline of the Messages for the Full-time Training in the Spring Term of 2018

GENERAL SUBJECT:
ENJOYING THE RICHES OF CHRIST
FOR THE BUILDING UP OF THE CHURCH AS THE BODY OF CHRIST

Message Eleven

Propagating the Resurrected, Ascended, All-inclusive Christ to Produce the Churches—the Kingdom of God

Scripture Reading: Acts 1:8; 2:32-33, 36; 4:10-12; 5:31; 13:32-39; 16:7

- I. We need to experience, enjoy, and propagate the all-inclusive Christ as revealed in the book of Acts—1:1-3, 8.
- II. The Christ revealed in Acts is in resurrection—v. 3; 2:32; 3:15; 4:33:
 - A. Through death Christ entered into another realm, the realm of resurrection:
 1. Because Christ is the living One with an indestructible life, death is not able to hold Him—Heb. 7:16; Acts 2:24.
 2. He delivered Himself to death, but death had no way to retain Him; rather, death was defeated by Him, and He rose up from it.
 - B. We need to know Christ in the power, sphere, and element of His resurrection—Phil. 3:10-11.
- III. The Christ revealed in Acts is in ascension—1:9-11; 2:32; 5:31:
 - A. The Lord's ascension brought Him into a new stage—the stage of a resurrected man living in the heavens as the center of God's administration—Rev. 5:6:
 1. This resurrected One is now sitting in the heavens to execute God's administration—Heb. 12:2.
 2. The resurrected Christ ascended to the heavens to be exalted by God and to be given the kingship, the lordship, and the headship over all things—Phil. 2:9-11; Eph. 1:22.
 3. The ascended Christ has also obtained the throne, the glory, and all the authority in the universe—Rev. 5:6; Heb. 1:3; 2:9; Matt. 28:18.
 - B. The ascended Christ is the Lord of all to possess all—Acts 2:36:
 1. The lordship of Christ is one of the most important aspects of what He has obtained in His ascension—10:36.
 2. Since the lordship of Christ was fully established in His ascension, we—the members of His Body—need to realize this heavenly fact—Eph. 1:20-21.
 - C. The ascended Christ is God's Anointed to carry out God's commission to work out the spreading of the gospel and the building up of the church—Acts 1:8.
- IV. The resurrected and ascended Christ revealed in Acts is the all-inclusive Christ—3:14-15, 25-26; 4:10-12; 5:30-32; 7:56; 10:36, 39-43; 13:32-39; 16:6-7, 31; 17:30-31; 20:28:
 - A. Christ is the Author of life—3:14-15:

1. As indicated by the Greek word rendered "Author," Christ is the origin or Originator of life; He is the Author, the Chief Leader, of life—v. 15.
 2. In Acts 3 we see the imparting of life into others, which is to propagate Christ; for such a propagation, we need the Lord as the Author of life, the source of life.
 3. As the Author of life, Christ is the holy and righteous One—v. 14.
- B. Christ is God's Servant—vv. 25-26:
1. God glorified His Servant Jesus through His resurrection and ascension—v. 13.
 2. As the seed of Abraham and the Servant of God, Christ is the One in whom all the families of the earth—all the races, colors, and nationalities—will be blessed—vv. 25-26.
 3. God sent back the ascended Christ as a blessing by pouring out the Spirit on the day of Pentecost; hence, the Spirit whom God poured out was the Christ whom God raised and exalted to the heavens—2:33; 3:13-15, 25-26.
- C. Christ is the cornerstone—4:10-12:
1. Christ is the stone for God's building—Isa. 28:16; Zech. 3:9; 1 Pet. 2:4:
 - a. In Christ God came in incarnation to be a stone for the building up of His universal habitation.
 - b. Christ, the stone, was despised and rejected by the Jewish leaders, but He was raised up by God to become the cornerstone—Acts 4:10-11.
 2. The fact that Christ our Savior is a stone reveals that God's salvation is for God's building—v. 12:
 - a. This stone is the unique One in whom we can be saved—vv. 11-12.
 - b. He is the Stone-Savior—solid, strong, and reliable.
- D. Christ is the Leader and Savior—5:30-32:
1. God exalted the man Jesus as the highest Leader, the Prince, the Ruler of the kings to rule over the world and the Savior to save God's chosen people—Rev. 1:5; 19:16; Acts 5:31.
 2. Leader is related to His authority, and Savior to His salvation; He rules sovereignly over the earth with His authority that the environment might be fit for God's chosen people to receive His salvation—cf. 17:26-27.
- E. Christ is the Son of Man—7:56:
1. Acts 7:56 reveals that Christ is the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God to be the comfort, encouragement, and strength to the one martyred for Him.
 2. Stephen saw the ascended Christ as the Son of Man; this indicates that the Christ who is in the heavens still has His humanity; He still possesses His human nature.
- F. Christ is the Lord of all—10:36:
1. All in Acts 10:36 refers to all peoples—1 Tim. 2:4.
 2. The ascended Christ is the Lord of all the different races and peoples on earth; with Him there is no respect of persons—Rev. 5:9.
- G. Christ is the Judge—Acts 10:39-43:
1. Christ has been designated by God to be the Judge of the living and the dead—v. 42.

2. Christ is a man to judge the world, designated by God in righteousness and proved by God's raising Him from the dead—17:30-31.
- H. Christ is the Firstborn of God—13:32-39:
1. He is the One promised to the fathers and begotten by God in resurrection to be the Firstborn—vv. 32-33.
 2. As the Firstborn of God, He is the holy and faithful things of David—v. 34.
 3. Through such a One, forgiveness of sins is announced, and whoever believes in Him is justified—v. 39.
- I. Christ is the Lord Jesus, the object of the believer's faith—16:31:
1. To believe in the gospel is mainly to believe in Jesus Christ—v. 31.
 2. To believe in the Lord Jesus is to stand on the person of Christ and all that He has accomplished, both of which constitute the belief, the faith, of God's New Testament economy—1 Tim. 1:4.
- J. Christ is God—Acts 20:28:
1. Christ as our God is the Purchaser of the church, having obtained the church with His own blood—v. 28.
 2. God secured, purchased, and redeemed the church with "His own blood" (v. 28), "the blood of Jesus His Son"—1 John 1:7:
 - a. Christ died on the cross as the God-man, and the blood that He shed there for our redemption was not only the blood of the man Jesus but also the blood of the God-man.
 - b. The blood through which God obtained the church is God's own blood.
 - c. Acts 20:28 implies that Jesus Christ is God as the Purchaser of the church, who obtained the church with His own blood.
- K. We may experience and enjoy the resurrected and ascended Christ as the Spirit of Jesus, the Holy Spirit—16:6-7:
1. Just as the Spirit of Christ is the reality of Christ, so the Spirit of Jesus is the reality of Jesus—Rom. 8:9; Acts 16:7:
 - a. If we do not have the Spirit of Jesus, Jesus will not be real to us.
 - b. Jesus is real to us because we have the Spirit of Jesus as the reality, the realization of Jesus—v. 7.
 2. The Spirit of Jesus is a particular expression concerning the Spirit of God and refers to the Spirit of the incarnated Savior who, as Jesus in His humanity, passed through human living and death on the cross—Luke 1:31, 35; Matt. 1:21; Acts 16:7:
 - a. In the Spirit of Jesus there is not only the divine element of God but also the human element of Jesus and the elements of His human living and His suffering of death as well.
 - b. The Spirit of Jesus is not only the Spirit of God with divinity in Him so that we may live the divine life but also the Spirit of the man Jesus with humanity in Him so that we may live a proper human life and endure its sufferings.
 - c. "With all these components true / His Spirit in us doth move, / And by His anointing full / The riches of Christ we prove"—Hymns, #242, stanza 5.
